CITIZEN’S VOICE

President Jim Claeysen introduced Mr. John Groh, President of the Rockford Area Convention & Visitor’s Bureau. Mr. Groh stated that he is present to encourage village officials to bring the Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University to the Rockford Region. Mr. Groh asked that the village board adopt a resolution supporting for its campus here, and to promote the campus to potential students throughout the Midwest.

James Coppernoll moved to amend the agenda to add Resolution to bring Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University to the Rockford Region. Scott Kramer seconded. Motion carried by voice vote.

Scott Kramer moved that the village board adopt Resolution Number 2010-11 Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University to the Rockford Region. Sally Hollembeak seconded. Motion carried by voice vote.

President Jim Claeysen asked Bonnie Whitmer to please come forward and address the village board. Mrs. Whitmer made statements in regards to the purchase of a water department utility truck; the 1.3 million dollars ear marked for a Public Works building and asked for a firm commitment from the board that if the 1% sales tax referendum passes the board will never implement the special service area tax.

President Jim Claeysen asked JoAnn Hudson to please come forward and address the village board. Mrs. Hudson stated that she is in favor of the 1% sales tax and asked President Claeysen and village board to promise never to impose a new special service area. President Claeysen stated that “as long as he is president there will not be a special service area tax for the five years that the sales tax is in place”. Sally Hollembeak, James Coppennoll, Scott Kramer and David Schroeder also committed to this promise.

President Jim Claeysen asked Collette Rudis to please come forward and address the village board. Mrs. Rudis had a question about the number of bonds the village has; Village Treasurer Karen Melloch explained to her the village has (2) Capital Improvement Bonds (which are part of the village’s 1% sales tax plan) and (1) Water Bond, which is a separate bond issue tied directly to the village’s water utility operations. This bond is paid by the revenues received through the village’s water customers. Mrs. Rudis made statements that she had concerns that if the sales tax would fail that the village would be forced to implement a property tax to pay for the outstanding bonds. Mrs. Rudis said that she and those present are here to receive a promise that there will not be a special service area tax for the five years that the sales tax is in place and thanked President Claeysen and board members for their promise.
